SENIOR LEAGUE.

IMPERIALS 0 — CARDINALS 5.

May 11 — The Imperials suffered another defeat at the hands of the Cardinals owing to the masterful work of Lill, who struck out eleven men and allowed but one hit. The score:

LAURELS 0 — ROYALS 6.

May 12 — The Laurels and Royals started the second round of the League last Thursday, and Fiely, who was in excellent form, let the "Copyites" down without a hit or run. Fitzgerald of the Royals starred at the bat, getting a home run. The score:

IMPERIALS 11 — SHAMROCKS 10.

May 13—By far the most ragged and disinteresting game of the season was played last Saturday.

Free-for-all hitting and nearly a score of errors characterized the game. The score:

ALL-STARS 2 — RELIGIOUS 3.

May 14 — The All-Stars clashed with the Religious, our old rivals, last Sunday, and the game was fast and exciting from start to finish. The Stars got a bad start and the first inning lost the game for them, owing to two errors which netted three runs for the Southsiders. After the first inning, however, Lill had everything his own way and disposed of his opponents in regular order. Burkhart also came in for his share of the pitching honors, and his "shoots" were unsolvable at times. The score:

AMATEURS.

Our Amateurs are just rounding into form and playing a classy game of ball. Spectacular catches of every kind are daily occurrences and if they continue to improve at their present rate we may expect many stars in our league next year. They never fail to make their games interesting and enter the sport with heart and soul and always have plenty of ginger in them to make the contests interesting.

SENATORS 4 — TIGERS 3.

The wise, old Senators of the Amateurs' League evened things Monday by defeating the Tigers the end count being 4 and 3. It was a pitchers' battle, however Schmitz got the best end of it. It is worth the while to walk out to see some of these games. Many of them are exceptionally good.

EDITOR'S NOTE.

The Minstrel.

The Minstrel given by the Ralleigh Jolly Smoking Club last Sunday was a great success both financially and as to production. Withont doubt "Dud" Riley was the star of the Darktown delega- tion; Jack Dwyer was also good. The Johnstown flood was but a drink of water compared with the tears that flowed when King Brady lost his doggie. From the standpoint of art the quartette did the best work ever rendered on the Collegeville stage in the line of singing. The selections were fine, especially "My Merry Oldsmobile." It proved to be a delightful change from the nature lyrics that we generally hear on such occasions to the romantic lyrics. "The Rose," a selection from "The Explorers," was also above the ordinary. Leon Du- frane deserves special mention for his singing, and starred with his song "If I were a Millionaire." He was accompanied by the Darktown Quartette, and this proved to be a very unique fea- ture. Berghoff and Leugers ren- dered an exceedingly humorous afterpiece which was far above our fondest expectations. Gust is naturally a humorist and he certainly brought out his part in professional style.

Little boy Sox he lost his goat
And he dont know where to find her.
He swiped at Steppe and Sabedos
To give them a gentle reminder
To quit "slowing" him at meals
Or he'd fight it out on the gym floor.
Sox is O. K. when bis nanny is not gone
Some day he will be a great counsellor
Then Sabi and Steppe better take a back seat
For Sox will go to a jury
That will go both six years of hard work in jail
Or the stone yard which you know is a fury.
Little boy Sox when he finds his goat
He better be sure to tie her
Because if he dont she will wander away
And wander till she'll expire.
